President's Annual Report

Another year of uncertainty & disruption to our Siamese showing world! However, ownership of a Siamese continued to be at the forefront of many old & new customers continuing strong demand. Many enquiries were fielded by our Kitten Registrar Valda McDermott, who managed to direct them to breeders who could assist with supply. My thanks to Valda for her efficiency with this task. The continuing pandemic impacted each & every one of us whether breeding or owning by increasing costs of supplies whether it be veterinary, petfood, cat litter etc. Fortunately, we have worked together to increase our selling prices to offset some of these increases.

The other impact COVID has had upon us has been that very few face to face meetings have been held. Thankfully those matters requiring input & agreement by our committee have been managed electronically without too much difficulty.

Our membership continues to grow primarily as a result of our Introductory Membership offer & it is hoped that some of those will convert in to either associate or full members. Well done & thank you to Sandra Sweetman for her efforts in gathering so many incentives/prizes to encourage our existing members to nominate Introductory Members. Winners of our 2021 competition for most members introduced will be declared at today's meeting (19th February, 2022).

Whilst I am thanking Sandra I must also add my thanks to her & her assistants for the wonderful promoting of our Siamese they managed at Sydney Royal 2021. Let us hope that there is more to follow at this year's Sydney Royal, which for the very first time will find each of the NSW registering bodies staging its Cat Show on separate days rather than being a three or four day event managed by the R.A.S.

Thank you Marion Anstis for another year of outstanding FELIS publications. I am certain that our members appreciated the articles & pictures that you included in each addition along with the results of shows (Cats NSW & NSWCFa) compiled by Sandra & edited by myself. We should all be very proud that we have such a quality magazine promoting not only our Siamese but also ownership of a cat.

Our website during 2021 has, and continues to be, redesigned under the administration of our very own Webmaster Peter Gunczy. His hours of work in maintaining our website are very much appreciated as it consumes many of his non-working hours.

To Sharon Black, both our Secretary & Treasurer, a job well done during 2021 as communicating with us all & those general enquiries can at times be a thankless task. The very occasional rescue of a Siamese request always seemed to have a happy ending which should please us all. Hopefully in 2022 a member can accept a role to lighten the load on Sharon.

Finally, I must thank my fellow committee members for their work in 2021 and for the support they have given me as your SCS President. Welcome to our new members & I look forward to promoting our “pure” Siamese with you all during 2022.

Secretary's Annual Report

Our Siamese Cat Society committee and members are to be commended for their dedication and love of Pure Siamese breed and we have a fantastic club that is growing.

Our President Tony Hurry as always shows his dedication and passion for our club with his knowledge, experience and leadership keeping us on track to ensure our club is running smoothly and professionally. Marion has put in a lot of hard work this year with the wonderful Felis editions and assistant Secretary, Marion is always there to lend a helping hand in any way she can. I thank her for the support and help.

Our SCS committee have done a wonderful job in 2021, I thank every person in the committee for volunteering their time to help improve our club and our pure Siamese breed and I hope in 2022 there is the same confident expansion of the committee.

It has been wonderful to see our membership grow this year with one of the highest membership numbers I have seen, and the membership drive has worked well in 2021. I thank Sandra Sweetman for all the work she has done with the Introductory Membership Competition awards and the Banner Photo Competition she organised, plus I thank everyone that helped and supported the Royal Easter Show breed days, with Sandra co-ordinating it, and all the volunteers who helped.

I would like to welcome every new member and I thank the existing members for renewing your membership. I hope all members enjoy the SCS club with the Felis and a big thankyou to Peter Gunczy for maintaining the SCS website. It is such a big job and Peter always excels at it.

I would like to thank CatsNSW for always supporting our Siamese Cat Society. It is a shame that COVID and all the restrictions last year prevented us from doing our regular SCS awards at a CatsNSW Show.

It was a pleasure to volunteer for the club as Secretary again for 2021, and I thank everyone for the opportunity, I am sure the committee for 2022 will do a fantastic job for the club.

Kinds Regards,

Sharon Black

Royal Easter Show Promotion Day

Sandra Sweetman

Once again our club has been able to promote our wonderful, awesome 'pure' breed Siamese cats at a promotion day on the 10th April at the Royal Easter Show 2022, which was open to the general public.

A BIG THANK YOU to our volunteers: Marion Anstis, Amanda Ramsay, her friend Bobbie Lumley and Janelle Ravine who spent the whole day there answering a barrage of queries and questions from a non-stop stream of general public. Thanks should go to our member Tammy Sweetman for lending us her pet cat.

Our 2 cats portrayed our breed as really great ambassadors with the public:

Chocolate point spay: Keira (Astraxalotte Ethi Kai), and seal point female Aurie (Shiloh Mai'u Aurora).

We gained 2 new members and one renewal. We had over 100 entries in our 'free' raffle and the winner of the $50 gift voucher was Robyn Bolin from Wiley Park.

The new banner on the Four Colours of 'Pure' Siamese was a winner, with many visitors spending time studying it, and the smaller size worked in really well. The promotional material was also received well, particularly the flier on 'how to show your cat'.

Thanks again everyone for making this a great success.

Winners of the Banner Photographic Competition 2021

Kalinya YM Loki

Seal Point

Owner: Jill Meyer, Port Melbourne, Vic

Breeder: Tony & Bev Hurry

Neuter cat

Loki was born May 4, 2017. The day I got him, I picked him up at the airport, I opened his crate and instead of hiding he walked straight out of his crate and onto my lap and there he sat scoping me and his new home out. I was absolutely shocked!

Biggest personality I've ever met. He is the absolute smoochiest cat, loves meeting new people and given the chance will talk your ear off. (Or more like yell your ear off - he's very LOUD!). He's a big boy at 7kg. Loves his treats and his buddy Drax, my Bengal born a week before him. He's not only the heart of our home but also the boss!

Astraxalotte Ethi Kai (Keira)

Chocolate Point

Owner as kitten: Ross Sweetman, Castle Hill, NSW

Breeder: The Gallagher Family

Female kitten here, spay cat as adult

Keira was my cat as a kitten, and she was and is the most loving and affectionate cat ever. She loves playing fetch and also plays with toy scrunches. She is very talkative and loves to cuddle up and watch TV.

Her favourite show is British thrillers. I think at times she thinks that she is a dog, as she follows me around most of the time wanting to play. Her favourite treat is a dried quail neck!

ACF BZ AOF, GLD DGC Astaxalotte Akoni Gem (Hugo)

Blue Point

Owner: Sandra Sweetman, Castle Hill, NSW

Breeder: The Gallagher family

Stud Cat

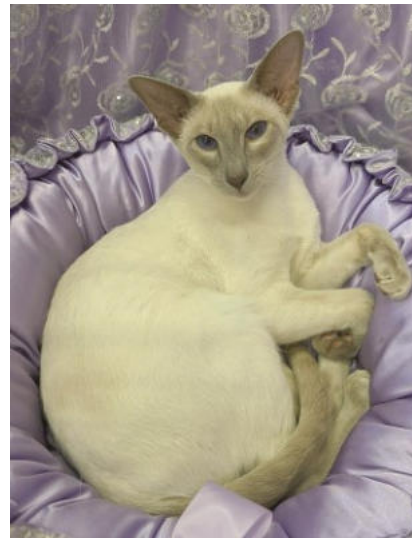

Hugo is our much loved pet and our stud cat.

He has an exceptional, gentle, loving nature and is very good when meeting new people.

His favourite pastime is watching crime dramas on TV and playing with his feather stick toys. He just loves chasing anything with feathers on it.

He has performed extremely well at the shows, and is very calm and easy to manage when he is being judged, enjoying the attention!

He has won many Best in Shows, and was selected as Group 2 overall Cat of the Year at the CatsNSW Cat of the Year Show, 2021.

ACF AoE, CCCA CH, GDGCH, Silver DGC Lookatmese Call To Arms (Theodore, Teddy) Lilac Point

Owners and breeders: Amie and Jay Hobbs, Smithfield Plains, SA

Stud Cat

Teddy was our first stud at Lookatmese Siamese. He has been an amazing stud cat for our cattery with his achievements and the wonderful kittens he produces. He is a great example of what a stud cat should be with his calm and sweet demeanor on the show bench. Teddy has won multiple Supreme in Group awards over the years and has achieved many end of year awards.

A big thank you to all those who entered in our Banner Competition. For those whose entries were not selected, keep an eye out in Felis, as we aim to include some of your images when possible in future issues.

Coping with grief when your cat passes away

Sandra Sweetman

I wrote this because I get a lot of calls from people whose cat has passed away (many crying on the phone, so I always know that at least it has been a good home).

We all love our cats but sadly one day, they will pass away. Grief and loss are emotions that can convey that the depth of our love for our loved one. The relationship that we have between our pets provides us so much joy and love at the time but unfortunately their lives are so much shorter than ours and it can be heart breaking to say that final 'goodbye'. It's harder still if you have to make that decision at the Vet's when your cat's life declines. The death of any animal can be devastating.

With the loss of any pet it can be difficult. A disenfranchised grief can occur when the person grieving can feel unsupported by family, friends and society, as their grief can be unacknowledged and even regarded as unworthy by someone who doesn't understand the love a person can have for a pet. It is a 'hidden' grief or sorrow that often is not acknowledged or validated or even understood. This disenfranchised grief can then become more complicated as it can become more difficult for the person grieving over the loss of their pet to share their feelings and pain with others.

Responses to the grieving process can take three different courses:

- ♦ a normal grieving process and response
- ♦ a more difficult and longer term process

of healing and readjustment

- ♦ a more delayed response when the grief itself is either denied or distorted.

Grief is a journey over time during which we find healing. It is a process that we all need to go through during our life that includes different stages such as shock, denial, anger, depression and finally acceptance: not necessarily all in that order.

Mourning itself has no timetable and it is best to let grief unfold at your own pace and time, remembering to take care of yourself and your emotional needs. Surround yourself with family and friends who understand how heartbreaking it is to lose a much loved pet. Others who have walked this pathway will understand what it is that you are going through and experiencing.

It is important that if you have other cats and even kids to try to keep to usual routines, as they can easily pick up on the grief and stress you are currently experiencing.

Some people find that a memento, a reminder of their pet's life, helps them cope with the hurt they are feeling. Most likely you will have some photos taken during your pet's life or final days so you have something to remember them by.

Another idea is to honour their memory by displaying their photo or collar, or imprint of their paw. Paw prints can be very meaningful. You could even collect photos of them and their life and make a montage (a picture made of an assembly of various pictures to make a larger artwork) of them for display so you can remember all the good times and memories you shared.

Some people have found that by writing down and expressing their feelings in a journal or even a poem or story helps.

Be kind and patient to yourself. Your pet and family would want that. Take comfort in all the happy memories you shared together and know that time helps to eventually soften the blow. Never be afraid to reach out and seek professional help and assistance if needed.

While we all respond to the loss of a pet differently, the level of grief you experience will often depend on factors such as the age and personality of your pet when it passed away along with the circumstances of the death. Generally, the more significant your pet was to you, the closer you are to the animal, the more intense the emotional pain you'll feel.

Remember if the beloved pet passed away at the Vets and the Vet was recommending it, don't feel guilty. When animals become very sick or old the owner is faced with the incredibly hard decision of when to say goodbye. This can lead to feelings of guilt. You might think 'Did I make the right decision?' or 'What if they had more time?'

If these feelings come up for you, it can be helpful to shift your mindset to view euthanasia under these circumstances as an act of compassion. Remember that if your vet was recommending you say goodbye, your pet was most likely in a lot of pain, and it wasn't going to get better.

Remember that losing the unconditional love and friendship of a much loved pet is, and will be, very difficult. Pets love and comfort us and ease our hurt and pain in ways that a human just can't. We need to just be thankful each day we have with them!

The author Hilary Stanton Zunin states:

'The risk of love is loss, and the price of loss is grief. But the pain of grief is only a shadow when compared with the pain of never risking love.'

Article dedicated to our lilac kitten Arabella, who passed away far too young.

Our collapsible metal cat cage is one of the most common cages used for cat shows around Australia. Our multiple level cat cages are also extremely popular amongst cat rescue groups, breeders and foster carers in Australia. Whether you are an average cat owner looking for a carrier for use in a car or plane or a cat breeder looking for a show cage, you'll find something to suit your requirements here.

CAT MATE: a Naturally Superior Performance in cat litter. Our eco-friendly wood pellet litter is the ideal solution for cat owners seeking quality cat litter that is easy to use and super absorbent. Our product contains natural oils that inhibit the growth of bacteria that cause the ammonia odour.

Understanding the Science

Catmate contains natural oils that inhibit the growth of bacteria that cause the ammonia smell. Catmate wood pellets are heavier than paper-based litter and don't stick to your cat's feet even when wet.

Tracking & Staining - Why it matters

Kitty Litter should be contained to the tray, you don't want it sticking to your cat's feet and ending up all over your home. A cat's feet and fur should remain the colour nature intended. Catmate has none of the pigments or added colouring that commonly stain cat fur (particularly white).
