as amended 7th February 2026

- 1 The name of the Society shall be "The Siamese Cat Society of NSW Inc".
- 2 The objects of the Society shall be to:
 - (a) Promote and improve the breeding of pedigree Siamese cats.
 - (b) Safeguard and encourage fair dealing in Siamese cats.
 - (c) Promote co-operation and mutual assistance between members in breeding and dealing in Siamese cats.
 - (d) Maintain a critical supervision of the official standards of points for Siamese cats, their statement, implications and interpretation by breeders and judges.
 - (e) Hold shows of Siamese and other cats and exhibitions, and to support other clubs providing classes for Siamese cats.
 - (f) Undertake to work co-operatively to rescue and find a Home for Life for Siamese Cats, as far as practicable.
 - (g) Undertake all such other activities as shall be for the benefit of Siamese cats, and to support all actions for the welfare of all cats.

3 MEMBERSHIP

- (a) The Society shall consist of Full members, Associate members and Honorary members.
 - (i) Full Members shall be breeders or owners of Siamese cats, and their husband, wife or defacto partner, each living at the same address.
 - (ii) Associate Members shall be persons other than full members interested in Siamese cats.
 - (iii) Honorary Members shall be persons who in the opinion of the Committee have given special service to the Society, and may be elected for one year or, in exceptional circumstances, for life. An honorary member shall retain the voting rights possessed before election to honorary status or, if not previously a member of the Society, such rights as the Committee shall determine.
 - (iv) Joint Full Members shall be available to members in accordance with Membership rule 3(a)(i).
- (b) All prospective members shall apply for membership on the form prescribed by the Committee and shall be elected by the Committee. Two negative votes in a secret ballot shall exclude from progressing to membership.
- (c) Any member may be expelled from the Society by resolution of the Committee or of a general meeting, for actions calculated to be contrary to the objects or spirit of the Society or to be likely to bring the Society into disrepute. A member shall be notified in writing of any motion for expulsion and shall be given opportunity to defend himself, and may also appeal from a decision of the Committee to the Annual General Meeting or the next Special General Meeting for re-instatement.

- (d) Upon election, full or associate members shall pay an annual subscription of amounts to be determined by the Annual General Meeting at the request of the Committee. Honorary members shall pay no fees. Members elected during the final quarter of the Society's financial year shall remain financial for the following year without payment of any further subscription unless the subscription be increased by the Annual General Meeting when they shall pay the amount of the increase.
- (e) Members, upon election, shall receive and accept the constitution of the Society and the authority of the elected officers and committee in all matters relating to business and procedure. Members may attend any meeting of the Society, other than a committee meeting, and shall possess equal rights excepting as otherwise stated in this constitution.

4 VOTING

- (a) All members shall have the right to vote except where this constitution excludes.

Certain categories of subjects shall be open to vote by full members only. These shall be matters which in the opinion of the chairman of the meeting materially affect the position, interests or status of Siamese breeders and owners or of the breed itself, either in isolation or relative to other breeds or breeders, and shall include discussion of the standards, special judges, appointment of judges at shows, conditions at specialist shows or in Siamese classes at general shows, etc.
- (b) Save as this constitution provides otherwise questions shall be decided by a majority vote at all meeting and committee meetings.

- (c) Each member present at a meeting of the committee or any sub-committee appointed by the committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote, but in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.
- (d) There shall be no proxy voting except where one months notice of motion shall have been given and either the Committee directs, or six members present or in writing request to the Secretary, that proxy votes be accepted. In such event the Secretary shall notify all members of the motion and shall at the same time forward proxy papers to all members eligible to vote.
- (e) Either the Committee or a General Meeting shall have power to refer any question of importance to a postal vote of all members eligible to vote.
- (f) Voting at all meetings shall be by a show of hands excepting:
 - (i) For the election of officers and committee.
 - (ii) For the election of new members.
 - (iii) When directed otherwise by the chairman of the meeting.
 - (iv) If any two members present object, then a secret ballot shall be held.
- (g) A postal vote shall be organised by the Secretary who shall specify exactly the question to be resolved and shall send voting papers to all eligible members and shall set a reasonable closing date for the receipt of replies after which date any papers received shall be informal.

Except in the case of an election a two-thirds majority of members voting in a postal ballot shall decide a motion in the affirmative.

- (h) Any ballot paper marked in any way other than as directed by the officer controlling the election shall be informal.
